Pilot in hospital after crash

A Granite City pilot's family rushed from Mexico to Alton after hearing that his Cessna 172 airplane had crashed into a Cottage Hills home about a mile from St. Louis Regional Airport, Bethalto.

"We were in Monterrey, Mexico, when we heard and we were just started," the pilot's father, the Rev. Donald Jones Sr., said. "We came here just as soon as we could."

The Rev. Donald G. "Skeeter" Jones Jr., 37, of Granite City, pastor of Eagle Stone Worship Center in Madison, was flying home when he started having fuel and radio problems. Fuel ran low while he skirted storms on the flight from Rockford toward Cahokia. He then tried to land at Bethalto.

The plane hit the top of a tree and crashed nose-down onto the home of Frank and Freda "Ginger" Street of 82 Circle Drive, Cottage Hills, just after 9 p.m. Wednesday.

The elder Jones, who lives in Joplin, Mo., was working as a missionary in Mexico at the time of the crash.

The younger Jones, who underwent surgery for a head injury Thursday morning, was in the intensive care unit at Alton Memorial Hospital in fair and stable condition later in the week. He also suffered a facial injury.

Frank Street, 53, was taken to Wood River Township Hospital with several cuts on his face and was being observed in the intensive care unit. He was in satisfactory and stable condition.

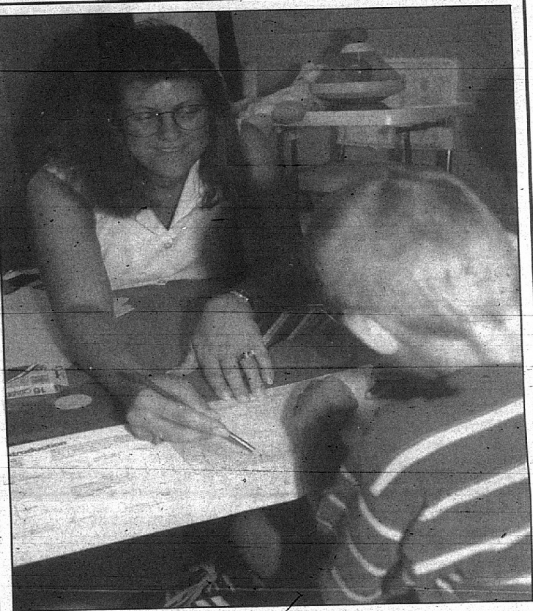

Frank Street was hurt by flying glass from a nearby window, according to a neighbor. "He heard a noise in his front yard and was going to the door to check when the plane crashed," neighbor James Staggs said.

Besides Freda and Frank Street, their daughter and two grandchildren were in the house at the time of the crash but escaped without injury.

Street family members would not comment about the crash on the advice of their attorney, Richard Shalkewitz, who could not be reached for comment.

"We've been informed not to say anything," a man who answered the Street's telephone said. "There is a lot of legal stuff."

Volunteer helps fight against abuse

By Hilcy Schulte
Staff writer

Just about the only thing Donna Peterson wants is to help and protect children. So, she spends just about all of her time working for that cause.

Much of her service occurs in the Granite City area.

Donna is paid for some of her work, but most of it is on a volunteer basis. Her official "job" is working part-time for the Children's Home and Aid Society out of Alton.

She has worked with parenting programs at the agency for the past seven and one-half years as a child care specialist.

Parents Anonymous, an international not-for-profit organization committed to the prevention and treatment of child abuse, recently honored Donna for her volunteer service to the organization.

The organization strives to strengthen families through peer-led, professionally facilitated self-help groups for parents and companion programs for children.

Superfund head to visit lead site

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

When U.S. Rep. Jerry Costello visits Granite City tomorrow, he will bring an important visitor with him.

Costello, D-Bellefonte, will take Elliott Laws, director of the Superfund program of the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, on a tour of the NL/Taracorp site.

"I look forward to this opportunity to show the director the Granite City Superfund site," Costello said.

"It is important that we try some new approaches on how we clean up this site in a way that will best benefit the citizens of Granite City," he said.

Costello aide Darby Becker said there are "other options" to the cleanup that "might better address cleaning up contamination." She did not elaborate on those options.

"Hopefully, Elliott will see that and make some changes in the proposed cleanup," Becker said.

The EPA's $35 million NL Industries/Taracorp Superfund cleanup of lead contamination here calls for removal of the top six inches of soil in a large area of Granite City, Madison, Venice and Eagle Park where the lead level is found to be 500 parts per million or more.

That contaminated soil would be added to a lead scrap pile at 15th and State streets and the pile would then be sealed over.

But city officials have contended that — to be effective — the cleanup should deal with the lead pile as well as other sources of lead contamination, such as paint and house dust.

A recently completed 18-month, $500,000 health study conducted within a three-mile radius of the NL Industries/Taracorp site reached the conclusion that all lead sources must be addressed in order for any cleanup to be effective in reducing health risks.

Costello, Laws, Mayor Ron Selph and Alderman Craig Tarpoff, chairman of the citizen advisory committee for the cleanup, will tour the proposed cleanup site Monday morning.

Man charged in store robbery and beating

A 28-year-old Festus, Mo., man known to "hang out" in the downtown Granite City area has been charged with the July 17 robbery and beating of a Granite City merchant.

Richard D. Hart was charged with armed robbery in a felony warrant issued last week.

Bond on the warrant is $100,000. Hart was not in custody Friday.

He is alleged to have used two weapons — a knife and a gallon can of paint stripper — during a robbery at Don's Hardware in the 1800 block of Delmar Avenue on a Sunday morning.

Don Caughron, the owner of the store, was working alone at the store at about 10 a.m. when Hart allegedly beat him, kicked him, struck him with a can of paint stripper and threatened to cut off his finger.

Caughron told police that more than $3,200 cash and five rings with a total value of more than $7,700 were taken in the robbery.

A telephone in the hardware store began ringing during the robbery, scaring the robber away, Caughron said.

Caughron picked Hart's picture out of a police photograph lineup, Caughron said. Police said that fingerprints found on a paint brush (See SUSPECT, Page 6A)

McGinness: Township next target

By Bob Slate
Staff writer

Two down, one to go. That is the attitude of Joe McGinness, who in the past year has successfully spearheaded petition drives first to have the size of the Granite City Council cut in half to seven aldermen from 14, and then to place a question on the Nov. 8 ballot allowing Madison County voters to change their form of government.

Last April, voters in Granite City overwhelmingly approved the council reduction question. A similar measure is now being considered in Belleville.

In November — thanks to a petition drive headed by McGinness — voters will have the opportunity to choose to continue having the county board chairman selected by county board members from among themselves every other year, or to have a county executive elected by all county voters every four years.

McGinness' next target is township government.

Joe McGinness

"My next project will be to see if we can abolish township governments. They're redundant in a lot of cases but I have a lot of research to do before that gets under way," McGinness said.

"I just don't have all the time to devote to it. I just wish they would put it on a statewide ballot so everyone in Illinois could decide at once," he said. McGinness, of Granite City, said that he thinks elimination of township government would probably need to be done on the county level. Madison County contains 24 townships.

To put the question on the ballot via petition in Madison County would require between 15,000 and 17,000 signatures, he said.

He said that he agrees with the findings of the Melville Strategic Management Review, a 128-page professional efficiency study conducted in Granite City and Granite City Township two years ago.

The Melville study points out that the township form of government was established in the 1870s to divide county government into smaller units with powers of zoning, health care, waterworks, roads and other matters.

Township government's main purposes today include providing general assistance in the form of food, utilities and health care to the needy, transportation services and road maintenance in rural areas.

But with the emergence of municipal government, many have called the township form "a dinosaur" and "obsolete."

The Melville study states that other service providers — either county government or in the private sector — have the ability to offer all the services currently provided by township government.

"I don't think there is any question regarding the township issue. I think it's a forgone conclusion and most people agree it is just another unnecessary level of government and taxation — that the costs far outweigh the benefits," McGinness said.

But, he said, he will not concentrate on the township issue until after the Nov. 8 ballot question on a county executive is decided.

"I would like to have a public

Earlier Pontoon action confirmed

By Hiley Schulte
Staff writer

It was like deja vu at a special meeting held Tuesday night by the Pontoon Beach Board of trustees to re-do its July 12 meeting.

At the previous session, Mayor Glen Wilson was absent. Because the board forgot to appoint a council member as temporary mayor to conduct the meeting, all actions were unofficial.

"I think it was an oversight. We don't want to do anything that might not be legal, so that's why this meeting was called," Wilson said.

At the opening of the special meeting, Trustee Bob Vincent made a motion to pass whatever action was taken at the July 12 meeting in its entirety. Wilson commented, "That covers minutes, bills, everything."

The motion was unanimously passed by all trustees present, including Mike Macek, Bob Abel, Vincent and Irene Karlechik.

Next, Macek made a motion that the board forgo any pay for the special meeting because it had to be called "due to the clerk's incompetence."

Clerk Louis Whitsell responded, "I resent that."

Trustees Macek and Karlechik thought that a motion to appoint a temporary mayor had passed at the beginning of the previous meeting, but that Macek had been late in beginning the taped recording.

Later in the special meeting, Whitsell played the tape. It included the Pledge of Allegiance, which is the usual way to open the meeting, but the tape did not include a motion to appoint a temporary mayor.

Macek's motion passed with Vincent being the sole trustee to vote no. Vincent said, "I have no problem with no pay, but that motion isn't fair."

After a motion to adjourn the special meeting had been made, but before the vote was taken, Macek asked for an executive session to discuss a personnel matter.

The board remained in closed session for nearly an hour, but had nothing to report upon its return to open session.

The meeting was adjourned, and the board's next regular meeting will be held at 7 p.m. next Tuesday, July 28.

Man stabbed, wife arrested

Vanessa Williams, 42, of Hill Street, Eagle Park Acres, was arrested for domestic battery Tuesday evening, July 19, by the Madison Police Department for allegedly stabbing her husband, Harvey R. Williams, 46, also of the same address, was treated and released at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City for a stab wound to the left side of the chest, below the left armpit.

Madison police said that upon their arrival at the home, Mrs. Williams ran to the patrol car and said, "Hurry, I stabbed him. I think he's hurt bad."

Witnesses said the two were "arguing and pushing each other" and Vanessa Williams was angry that Harvey Williams was preparing to go to a tavern.

Sherry Williams, 20, of the 1500 block of Collinsville Avenue, Madison, said she attempted to intervene. Vanessa Williams grabbed a pair of scissors and stabbed Harvey Williams.

A court hearing on the domestic battery arrest has been set for Aug. 25 in Granite City.

Celebration to open Sunday

By Nicole Vaughn
Staff writer

Demolition derbies, livestock shows, bluegrass music and carnival rides are just some of the dozens of activities slated for the Madison County Fair.

The annual event starts Sunday and runs through Friday at Lindendale Park in Highland. Opening ceremonies are slated for 12:30 p.m. Sunday. The fair will be held daily through July 29.

"We try to keep them busy while they're out here," said Kathy Loos, secretary/treasurer of the Madison County Fair Association. "We try to have a little something for everybody."

There aren't any new events to the line-up but Loos said she expects a draw for the various agriculture shows sponsored by the 4-H Club as well as for the vehicle events including a tractor pull, stock car races and a demolition derby to be held in the park arena.

Carnival rides, a fashion show, an arts and crafts show and live music are other featured events.

Madison school board member resigns

By Hiley Schulte
Staff writer

The Madison Board of Education on Thursday night accepted the resignation of board member John William Hatton.

In a letter, Hatton wrote that he enjoyed serving on the board, but because of health reasons he felt that he could no longer continue.

The board will have 45 days in which to select a successor to fill the board vacancy.

The board also accepted the resignation of Johnna M. Wells as girls' volleyball coach and assistant track coach and the retirement of Mary Hammond.

It was decided to advertise, both inside and outside the district, a position for an in-school suspension program supervisor even though the program is not definite and teacher contracts are still being negotiated.

"We just want to get the names of some candidates for when it is time to decide on the program," said Board President John Hamm.

A motion passed at a special session July 18 to hire six individuals to fill open teaching positions, was withdrawn. The six are Rebecca Sedabres, Tammy Wickham, Willard Owens, Leanne Sterner, Dwight Lockhead and Sandra Vogel.

Board member Wilbur Owens voted on the motion but later felt it was a conflict of interest because one of those hired, Willard Owens, is his son. The board passed the motion again, with Owens abstaining.

Outgoing Superintendent Daniel Kostencki announced that Madison schools have undergone asbestos inspections and an asbestos management plan is in effect.

At the next regular meeting, the board will discuss asbestos abatement at the former Madison Junior High school and bus transportation bids. After a request by Interim Superintendent Hilda Everage, the board added to its calendar another day of teacher in-service training on Friday, Feb. 10, 1995.

The board accepted a low bid from Koetting Ford of $10,960 to provide a 1994 Ford Ranger to be used to haul food for the school lunch program. The money to pay for the truck will come from the lunch program.

Hamm announced that, probably at the next board meeting, some type of policy will be adopted between the Madison Police Department and Madison schools.

Police Chief Paul Bargiel briefly spoke to the board before the meeting about improving the school and police relationship.

The board agreed to purchase new high school basketball uniforms from Black's in Alton at $1,139. Kostencki said it has been five years since the team has had new uniforms.

The board agreed to pay 1994-95 state association dues of $413 and $300 dues for the North Central Association. It also agreed to register the next superintendent to attend the 17th annual superintendents' conference.

A total of $2,000 was allocated to the Senior Aides Program for the 1994-95 school year. Kostencki commented that that is a minimal price for the work the seniors perform for the schools.

Taxing districts in the money

Christmas came in July for 178 taxing districts in the Madison County.

Officials Tuesday distributed more than $37 million in property taxes, the largest single weekly tax distribution in the history of the county, to school districts, cities, townships, libraries and police and fire departments.

"This will benefit all the taxing districts in the county," Madison County Treasurer John Shinkus said. "We're a month ahead of our schedule last year, and we're doing it at less cost."

The county has collected and distributed more than $75 million in taxes this year.

"That means 54 percent of the original taxes extended have been collected and distributed," Shinkus said. "We've never been able to reach that 50 percent goal this early. The taxing districts are getting their money earlier, which means they can meet their payroll and invest the money as they see fit. Everyone benefits."

Alton School District Assistant Superintendent Jim Baier said early distribution allows districts to budget more efficiently.

The district has received about $6.9 million this year, compared with $6.7 million at this time last year.

He said the district received 35 percent to 45 percent of its distributions by midsummer several years ago, compared with 62 percent this year.

Shinkus said the combination of an automated receipt process, efficiency measures and a trained staff aided in the quick turnaround.

The automated receipt process uses a new computer system that records tax receipts electronically.

"The tax receipting machine processes 2,000 bills an hour. We're doing a better job at less cost," Shinkus said.

Journals' parent continues to grow

The Journal Register Co., the parent company of the Suburban Journals, is making an addition to its family.

Robert M. Jelenic, president and CEO of the Journal Register Co., and William Dean Singleton, president and CEO of MediaNews Group, of Houston, announced last week an agreement by JRC to purchase The Bristol Press from MediaNews.

The Bristol Press is a 20,580-circulation daily newspaper in Bristol, Conn. Founded as a weekly in 1871, the newspaper became a semi-weekly in 1910 and a daily in 1916.

"This purchase will expand Journal Register Company's presence in Connecticut," Jelenic said.

JRC currently owns the New Haven Register, Connecticut's second largest daily and Sunday newspaper, as well as The Torrington Register Citizen, which was purchased last fall. Bristol is 28 miles north of New Haven and 12 miles south of Torrington.

In New England, JRC also owns daily newspapers in Fall River, Mass. (The Herald News); Pawtucket, R.I. (Times); and Woonsocket,

(The Call). The acquisition of The Bristol Press will bring JRC's daily circulation in Connecticut to 137,000 and company-wide daily circulation to 565,000. The total circulation of JRC's three newspaper groups, one in St. Louis and two in suburban Philadelphia, reach an additional 1.7 million households each week.

Jean B. Clifton, JRC executive vice president and CFO, said the purchase of The Bristol Press is expected to be finalized by Aug. 1.

James F. Normandin, who currently is marketing director for the New Haven Register, will assume publisher duties when the sale of The Bristol Press is completed.

Not a pay freeze

County officials' salary hikes greeted with criticism

Proposals for a salary freeze for Sheriff Bob Churchich and elimination of mileage payments for themselves got the cold shoulder from Madison County Board members last week. Instead, the board approved raises for themselves, the sheriff, county clerk and treasurer — prompting a new round of criticism.

"No surprises. Everybody got a raise," GOP county clerk candidate Bob Ramsey of Troy said after the meeting. He had been urging board members to freeze salaries for elected officials, but he has few allies on a board dominated by Democrats.

In fighting off a last-ditch effort to eliminate travel reimbursements for board members Wednesday, the board also received criticism from one of its own — Don Rea of Pontoon Beach.

"This is the last time I'll ever bring this up. Never again will you hear the word mileage from my mouth," Rea said before calling on his fellow board members to eliminate the payments.

Rea has been trying for several months to do away with the 25-cent-per-mile travel reimbursements board members get for going to and from committee meetings. Earlier this year, some board members said they would link Rea's proposal to an eventual pay raise proposal for board members, but they declined to do so in a meeting of the Finance and Personnel committees Tuesday night.

On a vote to do away with mileage reimbursements, the board tied. Board Chairman Nellie Hagnauer broke the tie, voting no and killing the proposal.

The board voted 21-3 to increase the sheriff's $55,400 salary by $1,000 a year beginning Dec. 1 and to give the county clerk and treasurer $1,000 annual raises starting Dec. 1, 1995. The county clerk and treasurer now make $53,000 a year.

The original proposal called for also holding the line on the sheriff's salary until December 1995, but board member Jack Krandsen of Alhambra argued to start the sheriff's raises this year to show the board's appreciation for the job Churchich has done fighting crime and keeping the lid on the county jail.

Board members Tony Bosch of Wood River, Rea and Harold Byers of Highland voted against the raises for clerk, treasurer and sheriff.

In addition to the $55,400 the sheriff is paid by the county, he gets $5,000 a year from the state for overseeing the jail. By law, the state stipend will increase by $1,000 if county officials follow through with plans to expand jail capacity above 200.

Board members tied 12-12 on whether to raise their annual stipends from $8,500 to $9,500 in December 1995, but Hagnauer broke the stalemate with a yes vote.

The raises will kick in Dec. 1, 1995, for the 14 board members to be elected this fall. The remaining members will receive raises after the 1996 election. State law prohibits salaries from being changed during a term of office.

Voting against the raises, in addition to Byers, were Bosch; Rea; Krandsen; Al Charleston of Alton; Mike Fruth of Edwardsville; Nick Hamilton of Edwardsville; William "Skip" Krumelich of Edwardsville; Frank Laub of Granite City; Jack Orrill of Godfrey; Tony Payne of Wood River; and Bob Stille of Edwardsville.

Four members were absent. The board also approved $1,000 annual raises for Hagnauer, boosting his salary from $44,550 to $45,550 Dec. 1 of this year. Hagnauer's salary would climb to $46,550 a year later.

The board voted 22-2 in favor of the chairman's raise, with Byers and Fruth voting no.

Regional Superintendent of Schools Harry Briggs Jr.'s salary came under fire when board members questioned a $5,000 stipend the county pays him in addition to his $59,000-a-year state-paid salary.

"These stipends are for absolutely nothing. We're giving money away," said Krandsen, who introduced an amendment to eliminate stipends for Briggs and a separate $3,750 stipend for Briggs' assistant.

Frandsen's proposal, however, was defeated 15-9 and the stipends were approved.

SIUE roof repair plan advances

Architectural companies to be considered for several roofing projects at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville have been recommended to the Illinois Capital Development Board (CDB) by the SIUE Board of Trustees.

Recommended by the Board in action Thursday morning were: FGM, Inc. Belleville; Walton and Associates Architects, Springfield; and Rhtutal and Associates, Freeburg. One of the companies will be selected by the CDB to develop plans and specifications for the following projects:

Replace flashing on the roof of the Rendleman Building; install a new roof on the Heating and Refrigeration Plant Building; and replace the roof on the Metcalf Theater, all at the Edwardsville Campus; replace asphalt roofing shingles on Buildings 8288 and 8281 and the rear addition of Building 8286 at the Alton Campus; and replace 3,700 square feet of roofing at the East St. Louis Center.

The projects are budgeted at $243,700 and are funded from a capital reserve appropriation to the CDB for the University. University officials said the identification of the firms to be considered for retention as architect conforming with the CDB Base Selection requirements and established University procedures.

Refreshing swim? Not in this Pool of Green!

Don't let it happen to yours!

FRANK'S NURSERY & CRAFTS

Where Beautiful Things Begin

As guests arrived for this long-planned family gathering, the kind and well-meaning hostess pointed out the backyard swimming pool. Nestled among the shade, the pool seemed like a welcome oasis for everyone on the exceptionally hot July 4th weekend.

"How's the water?" a guest asked. "It's great! My husband just added some chlorine last week," replied the hostess. Inspired (or at the least, intrigued) by that statement, this writer decided an investigation of the pool and surroundings was in order.

All suspicions were confirmed. The pool resembled a giant bowl of weak pea soup. The appearance of the bottom remains a mystery, since the ladder disappeared into a murky, cloudy mass. The filter was idle, and obviously had been for some time. A quick chlorine test showed zero.

Needless to say, the pool didn't attract too many swimmers. Two children ventured into the water, but were tactfully ordered out by concerned parents.

The above scenario probably occurs all too often around the country. Many people have no idea of what's involved in pool maintenance. The owner of this particular home was an accomplished handyman, having rebuilt a good portion of the house himself. But when it came to his pool...well, it wasn't exactly his cup of tea.

Proper care of a pool is not a difficult chore at all, and it doesn't require a great deal of knowledge. But a surprising number of people will claim that "pools are hard to take care of" and end up neglecting theirs, creating a situation like the one described above. We'd like to help you avoid it.

The single most important accessory any pool owner should possess is a water test kit. It will determine the chlorine content and the pH of the water. A daily water test is done as follows:

Cover the tips of the small vials with your fingertips and insert them in the water to about arm's length. Allow the vials to fill, then bring them out of the water. Each vial should have a line at the top indicating the water level. Put five drops of the clear solution into the chlorine vial and five drops of the red into the pH one. Cover the tops, shake them and forth a couple of times and take a reading. Determine the pH and chlorine against the colors on the test kit. If everything's fine, great. If not, you're in trouble. If the colors are off, it's a simple matter of adding chlorine and/or pH reducer or increaser.

This entire procedure takes less than five minutes, and it's a major step in ensuring clear, clean, healthy water.

Why every day? Well, during the hottest part of the summer, it's possible for a pool to require a chlorine and pH adjustment that often. Chlorine added "last week" has long ago faded into oblivion. Many factors enter into chlorine and pH requirements, such as temperature, the amount of pool usage, rainfall, swimmer perspiration, sun oil, and yes, the occasional child that doesn't want to leave the pool for a few minutes when it becomes necessary.

The unfortunate folks with the not-so-pleasant pool can restore it to normal, but it'll take substantially more effort and money. Good doses of algicide, plenty of chlorine and a lot of mopping up should do the trick. That whole green scene could have been prevented with simple water tests.

Your nearest Frank's store is a handy place to pick up any pool supplies you may need to keep yours in top notch condition. You'll find pH adjusters, chlorine, algicide and others, as well as many accessories.

So take those few minutes each day and keep your water clean and refreshing. After all, green's a nice color for landscaping, but it's very unappealing in a pool.

Volunteer supreme

Woman completes 10,000 hours of service

With a friendly wink at the staff in the Industrial Medicine Clinic of Providence Occupational Health Services, volunteer Murrell Harmon said she volunteers to "be with lots of influential people."

Providence Occupational Health Services, Granite City, Mo., is a member of the St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Harmon's own influence is felt in the clinic, where she has spent almost 13 years.

volunteering her time and talents.

Her three-days-a-week volunteering schedule has made her one of only eight volunteers at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City who have passed the 10,000 hours of service milestone.

"I love the department," she said. "They are beautiful people to work for."

Harmon describes herself as a

"go-fer." She will go for anything that is needed and helps with the filing and other tasks.

"It helps to have something lined up every day," Harmon said on her motivation for volunteering so much of her time. "It makes you feel needed, and I have always been very fortunate to have been with a great bunch of people."

Administrator getting training at medical center

Sister Dorothea Sondgeroth, a Dominican from Springfield, Ill., and graduate student at St. Louis University, will complete a 13-week administrative internship at St. Elizabeth Medical Center in Granite City this summer.

"I came to St. Elizabeth for several reasons," Sondgeroth said. "Some sisters in my community have received high-quality health care at SEMC and I have heard of the fine reputation you have in southwestern Illinois."

"When I visited the Sisters of Divine Providence last fall, I recognized this place to be a number-one choice for an internship because of the friendliness of the sisters, staff and associates I met."

in Jackson, Miss., instructor at the St. Dominic School of Nursing in Jackson; and instructor at Marian Catholic High School in Chicago Heights, Ill.

Sondgeroth is a student member of the American College of Healthcare Executives, and a member of the American Dietetic Association. She was named Outstanding Dietitian of the Year at the Southeastern Hospital Conference and initiated a series of classes on diabetes for the Jackson metropolitan area.

"I am fortunate to be on board with a family of committed staff Sister Dorothea Sondgeroth and associates who know how to give quality customer service and show it." Sondgeroth said. "Thank you for making me feel right at home."

New recycling ordinance gives municipalities an out

Cities and villages in Madison County can go their own way with recycling if they don't like a county plan that will go into effect in July 1996, but they'll still be required to meet state goals for diverting waste from landfills.

The County Board voted 22-2 Wednesday to require all waste haulers in Madison County to provide curbside recycling to residents in municipalities and unincorporated areas.

In addition, the ordinance will require haulers to separate recyclables from trash and will penalize individuals who pile cans and bottles from other residents' recycling bins.

"This'll be a great aid to villages and smaller cities that otherwise could not afford to bring all the little private hauling companies doing business (in their municipalities) into compliance with a recycling mandate," said board member Don Rea of Pontoon Beach.

Originally, the Environmental Control Committee had proposed forcing cities and villages to offer curbside recycling, but that proposal was altered after legal problems cropped up.

The ordinance approved Wednesday would require waste haulers to provide curbside recycling or face possible fines and revocation of their licenses.

However, the ordinance leaves the way open for cities to opt out of the county plan if they formulate their own waste reduction programs.

Under the ordinance, city or village officials who intend to opt out would have to design their own recycling programs, set up monitoring mechanisms and prove to the county and state that the community is meeting the same state-mandated recycling goals imposed on the county.

Madison County, which recycles about 9 percent of its residential waste, is required to boost that level to 25 percent by May 1996 or face fines.

County officials said they would not object to allowing cities to opt out of the plan.

"If they want to go off on their own and set up their own programs, that's fine," said Joe Parente, director of the county's Building, Zoning and Environmental Control Office.

"But then they are on their own with regard to meeting the state requirements and complying with the (recycling goals). It'll be between the cities who opt out and the state."

"The county will not be left holding the bag should any of the cities decide not to participate."

Board member Tony Bosich of Wood River argued against the proposal, saying garbage haulers from Missouri would take advantage of the landfill space saved by Madison County residents who recycle.

The extra space would be filled with additional trash hauled in from out of state, he said.

"I can't see why we should recycle and not them."

Other board members, however, said the county has no authority to interfere with interstate commerce, including out-of-state trash.

Bosich and board member

Dennis Dubbelde of Rosewood Heights voted no.

Dubbelde said he was worried municipalities would be left without garbage collection if a waste hauler lost a license for violating the ordinance.

"Are we just going to let the trash pile up?" he asked.

Parente said it would be up to the city to hire another waste hauler if the previous hauler lost his license.

"That's a contractual matter between the municipality and the hauler, but I would think that most trash-hauling contracts contain a clause requiring the hauler to meet all local and state licensing requirements. Losing your license would be a breach of contract in that case."

• Abuse

While parents meet with their weekly support group, Peterson cares for their children. She has been involved with Parents Anonymous since June 1992, providing child care to two local units, in Maryville and Granite City.

As a mother of three boys, I know how stressful parenting can be. Parents Anonymous provides support to strengthen families, and I see a parent having a difficult time, I tell them about the kind of support available through Parents Anonymous, Donna said.

She also helps organize Parents Anonymous fund raisers, including what she calls the Community Club Awards "Gold-En Trash" award.

This fund raiser includes the collection of labels and advertisements. When the items are turned in to "donors," each participant is awarded points for each piece of "trash." In the end, one of the participants is awarded money.

Donna helps with the fund raiser year-round, counting labels every week. She even keeps people's labels in her garage.

National Child Abuse Month in April is another big project for Donna. This year, she helped distribute almost 10,000 blue ribbons.

The blue ribbons are a symbol of determination to prevent child abuse and work toward a happy, healthy future for all children.

This is the second year Donna has helped with the Blue Ribbon Campaign, handing out ribbons at schools, grocery stores and just about anywhere involving children.

She also works with ticket sales once a year, and for this fund raiser, she calls on her sons for help.

She said she usually sits at Wal-Mart, or someplace similar, for an entire day and tries to sell prize tickets. She said her sons, Nicholas, 8, Jamie, 9, and Rustin, 10, are amazing salesmen, helping her tremendously in selling tickets to prospective prize winners.

Before Donna began working with the Children's Home and Aid Society of Illinois, she had a child-care center in her home for three years. She cared for six children in addition to her own children.

Also, Donna said she has always volunteered for children's services in churches. Any church we've belonged to, I've volunteered for something, I've always helped with a Bible school," she related.

Her sons' schools also take up quite a bit of Donna's time.

She said that, during the school year, she's at the school library almost every day, and totals 40 to 60 hours of volunteer service every month.

But in the summer, Donna "wants to spend the summer with my kids. I guess that makes me selfish."

She said her family tries to do something together every day in the summer.

Donna has volunteered for children since she was a teenager because she "can't stand to see people abusing kids. Even the way some people talk to them frustrates me," she said.

In high school, Donna sometimes baby-sat for free. She did it for two reasons. The first was just to be around kids. The other reason was so that parents who couldn't afford a baby-sitter could still have time away from their children.

She thought this would help prevent parents from taking frustrations out on their families.

Donna simply loves children, and she said she would do just about anything to be around kids.

She jokingly admitted that her husband won't let her become a foster parent because he thinks she probably has 50 foster children.

Donna admitted, however, that once in a while, once in a great while, she does need a slight break from the kids. So, she takes two vacations a year, one with her husband and the other with, yes, her whole family.

She said she will probably volunteer for children's programs as long as she can, and if not at the agency she is currently with, somewhere else.

Donna lives with her husband, Mark, a certified public accountant who is chief fiscal officer at Belleville Mental Health, and their three sons in South Roxana.

During the fall, Argosy's River, which uses the Dice paddle-wheel, is operating in the City suburb of St. Louis, which has taken a lot of beating boats. State so far, Missouri reports.

The board also approved $1,000 annual raises for Hagnauer, boosting his salary from $44,558 to $45,558 for the county board chairman Dec. 1 of this year. Hagnauer's salary would climb to $46,558 a year later.

debate regarding the pros and cons of the county executive form of government, and (Madison County Board Chairman Nelson) "Nellie" Hagnauer would be the obvious choice to argue for the existing system," McGinness said.

McGinness conceded that to ask Hagnauer to take a stand on the issue would force him to take a position that would appear to be self-serving.

McGinness said Thursday he found it "extremely interesting" that Hagnauer asked the Granite City Township supervisor to cast the tie-breaking vote Wednesday to approve pay raises for elected county officials effective next year.

"I wonder — did he fall on the side of being in favor of the pay raises so that (county board members) may be beholden to him?" McGinness asked. "Or could it possibly be he is getting ready to retire?"

"I find this to be a good argument for the county executive form of government," McGinness said.

He said that it was his understanding that the pay increase was designed to replace controversial mileage expenses currently reimbursed to county board members who drive to Edwardsville.

Argosy moving into Louisiana

SPRINGFIELD — Argosy Gaming Co. owner of the Alton Belle Casino, has won a third casino license — this time in Baton Rouge, La.

The casino in Louisiana's capital city is a joint venture with a firm there, Jazz Enterprises Inc., which will own 10 percent while an Argosy subsidiary owns 90 percent.

An $80 million investment in Baton Rouge, including a 1,500-passenger paddle-wheeler, is anticipated, G. Dan Marshall, Argosy director of investor relations, said Tuesday.

The Baton Rouge operation "is our biggest venture to date and something we've been waiting for a long time," he added.

Argosy had previously made an unsuccessful bid to get a casino license in New Orleans.

The delivery of the new boat for Baton Rouge is expected in mid-August, with operations scheduled to start in September.

The casino operation, which will also include a moving walkway from dockside lounges and restaurants, is in the Catfish Town historic section of downtown Baton Rouge.

Meanwhile, Argosy's second casino operation, in the Kansas City suburb of Riverside, Mo., has taken a lead over the other betting boats in the Show Me State so far, Marshall said.

During the first week of July, Argosy's Riverside operation, which uses the former Par-A-Dice paddle-wheel casino from East Peoria, had $972,000 in gaming revenues compared with $743,000 for Casino in St. Charles, $517,000 for the Admiral in St. Louis and $249,000 for one in St. Joseph, according to Missouri Gaming Commission reports.

Marshall credited the stronger showing to a monopoly in the Kansas City area. He also noted that boats in St. Louis and St. Charles must compete with casinos in Illinois that have slot machines.

Open house set at new GCC facility

The Granite City Campus of Belleville Area College will celebrate the grand opening of the new Industrial Training Center with an open house from 1 to 5 p.m. Friday, Aug. 19. The festivities will include ongoing tours of the $3.2 million facility throughout the open house. Festivities will kick off at 1 p.m. with a ribbon cutting and dedication ceremony.

Speakers will include BAC President Joseph J. Cipri, Ph.D., GCC Provost B.J. Davis, former State Senator Sam Wolf and representatives from National Steel of Granite City.

The new 37,000-square-foot facility is the site of classrooms and labs for such occupational training courses as industrial heavy maintenance, industrial electrician, industrial electronics and instrumentation, industrial machine shop, industrial millwright, industrial pipe fitter and industrial welder. The new ITC will also include training laboratories for air conditioning, heating and refrigeration, major appliance repair and welding technology. In 1992, Gov. Jim Edgar allocated $2.3 million in state funding to help BAC renovate the GCC gymnasium for the new ITC. Industrial classes had been held at National Steel's Granite City plant. Construction was completed this summer by L. Wolf Construction of Granite City.

Much of the state-of-the-art equipment for the facility was donated by the General Motors Supply, Emerson Electric and Cerro Copper. For more information about the Industrial Training Center, contact ITC Director Jim Moore at 797-1367, or Dr. Marguerite Boyd, dean of technical education at 238-2200, extension 319.

Income, work census survey planned

Local representatives of the U.S. Census Bureau will visit selected area households beginning Aug. 1 to conduct a Survey of Income and Program Participation (SIPP), according to Marvin L. Postma, director of the bureau's Kansas City regional office.

SIPP is a continuing nationwide survey introduced in the fall of 1983. It is one of the nation's largest, with about 60,000 households participating. The Census Bureau publishes periodic reports with information from the survey. Subjects covered include the following:

- Jobs and earnings.
  - The economic effects of unemployment, disability and retirement.
  - How taxes affect personal spending.
  - Participation in programs such as Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, food stamps and pension plans.
- Information from SIPP helps policy-makers and administrators determine how well government programs are serving the public and how changes in programs and policies will affect the public, Postma said.

Here are some facts about persons and their health insurance between 1987 and 1990, based on findings from the survey. (The sample size limits accurate reporting to national figures only.)

Twenty-one percent of all U.S. residents — approximately 50 million — lacked health insurance for at least a month during 1987.

The average monthly total of uninsured persons in the final quarter of 1990 was 13 percent of the population or about 32 million.

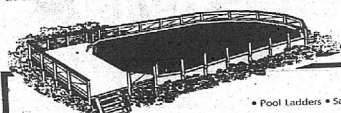

Twenty-eight percent of men lacked continuous health insurance between 1987 and 1989, compared with 25 percent of women because of higher levels of Medicaid and Medicare coverage among women.

Forty-six percent of Hispanics lacked insurance for at least a month between 1987 and 1989. Among racial groups, the percentage lacking insurance for at least a month was 40 percent for African Americans and 24 percent for whites.

Private health insurance covered 91 percent of whites and about 75 percent of African Americans and Hispanics for at least one month between 1987 and 1989.

One half of persons aged 18 to 21 had no insurance for a month or more. For those aged 25 to 44, 73 percent had continuous coverage compared with 82 percent of those aged 45 to 64 and 98 percent of those aged 65 and over.

For a wound that just doesn't heal...

Memorial's Wound Care and Limb Preservation Clinic

Memorial's Wound Care and Limb Preservation Clinic specializes in caring for people with chronic, non-healing wounds of the legs — a significant health problem in the United States.

Among the most common problems treated in the Wound Care and Limb Preservation Clinic are:

- Venous Stasis Ulcers — from weakness in the vein walls on the lower leg.
- Diabetic Ulcers — from poor blood flow and nerve damage in the legs and feet caused by diabetes.
- Leg Ulcer — from narrowing of the arteries causing reduced blood flow in legs.

Services offered

The Wound Care and Limb Preservation Clinic team is specially trained in:

- Wound Evaluation
- Wound Treatment
- Education and Prevention

Vascular and plastic surgeons evaluate your wound and formulate an individualized treatment plan. Other physician specialists are consulted as necessary.

Fees are charged according to the extent of services received.

For an appointment

Call Memorial's Marsh Cardiovascular Unit at (618) 257-5036. The Wound Care and Limb Preservation Clinic is held on Tuesdays from 8 a.m. to noon in Memorial's Physical Therapy Department.

THE VOICE BOX:

Do you think Granite City should have a "curbside" recycling program?

By T.W. MILLER

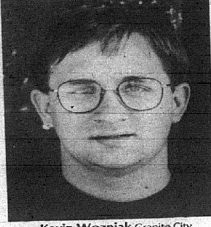

Brent Tracy Granite City
"Definitely, because we have enough trash as it is."

Shannon Donaldson Granite City
"Yes, because no one wants to see trash all over the place."

Gary Ellis Granite City
"Yes, anything they can do to reduce the amount of materials that goes into landfills will help."

Kevin Wozniak Granite City
"Yes, it would show that the community is taking a little responsibility toward the environment. Every small bit helps."

Mildred Harris Granite City
"Yes, it will be a lot more helpful for the people who curbside take their own paper, bottles and cans to recycling places."

St. Elizabeth honors associates for years of service, dedication to hospital

St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Granite City, honored its associates (employees) for their years of service and dedication to the medical center at its annual Associate Awards Dinner, held at the Marriott Pavilion in St. Louis.

"It was a great opportunity to honor the associates for their efforts," said SEMC president Ted Ellerman. "They are the ones who make SEMC not the buildings or the equipment, the dedication of the associates makes us the great medical center we are."

This year's top service awards, for 35 years of service, went to Patricia Berna and Wayne Hollis, both of Granite City. Daisie Edwards, also of Granite City, was honored for 30 years of service.

The Associate of the Year Award was presented to Carol Walker, quality improvement coordinator for Nursing Service. Sponsored by the Clink family, the award is designed to recognize an associate who, through his or her effort and outstanding performance, conveys concern and excellence to patients, visitors and the SEMC staff.

Melissa Jones, of the Switchboard, was named the recipient of the Georgianna Moses Ellerman Scholarship Award. The award is given by the Ellerman family in honor of Mrs. Ellerman's love of nursing and support of higher education.

BUSINESS

Slides don't panic 'novice' investors

By Roger McGrath
Correspondent

Taking to heart some Wall Street pundits' claims, economist Donald Morgan recently examined whether households' increased holdings of stocks and bonds — a trend that began in the mid-1980s — was bad news for the economy.

These experts worried that novice investors would panic when the market falls, quickly selling their investments, probably at a loss.

Even worse in the pundits' view, households, their nest eggs now worth less, would sharply curtail consumer spending, the engine that accounts for 60 percent of the gross domestic product.

Conceding that these Wall Streeters voiced some understandable concerns, Morgan, an economist at the Federal Reserve Bank of Kansas City, looked into household behavior. He found that you're behaving rationally.

He found that you're not panicking when the stock market slides, nor choking off consumption spending, he wrote in a recent article for a Kansas City Fed publication.

Households have been boosting their holdings of stocks and bonds for more than a decade. Wall Street investments — stocks and bonds — were 75 percent of household financial assets in 1993, up from 60 percent in 1982, Morgan wrote. Conversely, bank and money market accounts dropped to 25 percent from 40 percent over that period.

The shift to Wall Street investments isn't unusual. Nor are the percentages, Morgan wrote. The 75-25 split was the norm from 1965 through 1970.

"The share of household assets in stocks and bonds follows very closely the share of workers aged 35 and older," he wrote. "As workers age and begin to contemplate retiring, they save more and their investment horizon stretches."

In short, the aging baby-boom population is largely responsible for the shift out of banks and money market funds into Wall Street investments, Morgan wrote.

These may be novice investors, but they aren't naive. One survey found the median age of new entrants to the world of stocks and bonds is 44, and more than half have college degrees.

They're in no rush to play the market. Morgan noted that at the rate households traded stocks and bonds in 1990, it would take five years to completely turn over their portfolios.

Wall Street setbacks don't panic households, Morgan added. Because they are investing for retirement and, thus, have a longer investment horizon — years for a 35-year-old who expects to retire at age 60 — short-term declines in the prices of their stocks, bonds and mutual funds are of little concern.

Bert Longhi at his store in downtown Granite City.

Bert's pleased with site

By Hiley Schulte
Staff writer

"Downtown is still alive," according to Bert Longhi, owner of Bert's Furniture, located at 19th Street and Delmar Avenue in Granite City.

The rental-purchase business got its start in 1948 in Collinsville. In 1976, it moved to Granite City, where it occupied 2,000 square feet of space and had three employees.

It now has 30,000 square feet of space, 13 employees and three other stores — in East Alton, Belleville and Fenton, Mo. The Longhis are currently planning for a fifth store, in Maplewood, Mo.

Steve Longhi, Bert's son, is the president of the business. Appliances, electronics, furniture, jewelry and accessories are all available at the main store in Granite City, and rentals are handled on 12-, 18- and 24-month programs containing no obligation. Bert said he believes the business offers the largest selection of rental-purchase furniture in the St. Louis area, "bar none."

He also said that improvements are occurring all around Granite City's Bert's Furniture.

An old building is being torn down across the street, and a former bank building behind Bert's was acquired by the city, which is planning a $250,000 renovation of it. He said the city is attempting to attract an employment office for the building.

Asset

This is the second part of a two-part article available to cut. Last week's article was the first part of the week's article allocation.

Last week, dol averaging was set at regular intervals once a month, price of the security.

By doing this, shares when the price-per-share the long run. The investment greater profit.

While dollar-can reduce risk investments over time, asset allocation risk by diversifying according to a such as equity, international.

Diversification reduces risk by given time, so may perform well do not.

If, for example, Reserve reduced rate, money-in soon follow suit.

While the portion of one's less, the bonds could earn more.

Give

Kathy Givens, first nurse in County to receive the National Association of Hospice

Madison County is a department of St. Elizabeth's Medical Center, Granite City.

"I sought certification to enhance professional growth as a nurse," Givens said.

To provide care I possess, Givens became coordinator son County.

Certification is one part of dentistry, I on the individual.

Asset allocation — sell high, buy low

This is the second part of a two-part article on methods available to cut investment risk. Last week's article discussed dollar-cost averaging. This week's article will cover asset allocation.

Last week, dollar-cost averaging was described as investing a set amount of money at regular intervals, usually once a month, regardless of the price of the security.

By doing this, one buys more shares when the price is low and fewer when the price is high. This is done in the hope of creating a lower average price-per-share purchase price in the long run. Then, eventually, the investment could be sold at a greater profit.

While dollar-cost averaging can reduce risk by spreading investments over a period of time, asset allocation can reduce risk by diversifying investments according to a set mix of assets such as equity, bonds, cash and international.

Diversification typically reduces risk because, at any given time, some investments may perform well while others do not.

If, for example, the Federal Reserve reduces the discount rate, money-market rates will soon follow suit.

While the money-market portion of one's portfolio earns less, the bonds in the portfolio could earn more, since bonds normally appreciate when interest rates decrease. Equity investments such as stocks may also increase in value, since lower interest rates typically spur positive economic news, creating a greater demand and higher price for equities.

Asset allocation not only provides diversification in a consistent mix, but it also gives the investor an automatic opportunity of "buying low and selling high."

Using an asset allocation strategy, the investor chooses to keep set percentages of their investment in stocks, bonds, money-market funds and other investments.

The account is reviewed periodically, and funds are re-allocated to maintain the desired mix.

An example of asset allocation would be a portfolio with 40 percent of its funds in a money-market account, 30 percent in stocks and 30 percent in bonds.

At the end of the first quarter, a review shows that earnings from stocks outpaced earnings from bonds and the money-market account.

The excess value from the stocks portion of the portfolio is distributed to bonds and the money-market account to re-establish the original mix of investment percentages.

The investor is automatically selling the investment that is priced high and buying more of the investments that are low priced.

This concept then suggests that the investor spend most of the time deciding on categories of investments such as fixed, income, balanced, growth, aggressive growth and international versus whether to invest in stock A or stock B.

By allocating a predetermined percentage of an investment portfolio into specific investment categories, and then maintaining those percentages with subsequent investments, the investor realizes an averaging effect.

Asset allocation, like dollar-cost averaging, relies on consistent and disciplined investing.

There are no short cuts. In fact, the longer the investment time, the greater success the individual investor is likely to enjoy from these two investment techniques.

Brian Mulhall is a partner with America Group Financial Services. He can be reached in Granite City at 931-7922 or in Edwardsville at 692-9383.

Givens is certified as hospice nurse

Kathy Givens, certified registered nurse of hospice, is the first nurse in Hospice of Madison County to receive certification from the National Board of Certification of Hospice Nurses.

Hospice of Madison County is a department of St. Elizabeth Medical Center, Granite City.

"I sought certification to enhance my professional growth as a hospice nurse," Givens said. "I want to be able to provide our patients the best care I possibly can."

Givens became patient-care coordinator for Hospice of Madison County in 1991.

Certification from the NBCHN is one part of a process of credentialing. It focuses specifically on the individual and is an indication of current competence in a specialized area of practice.

State honors 3 students in 'Reflections' contest

Three Granite City school students earned honorable mention at the state level in the annual "Reflections" competition sponsored by state and local Parent-Teacher Associations.

The theme was, "If I could give the world a gift..." Students from more than 400 schools participated by submitting more than 26,000 entries in four categories — literature, visual arts, photography and music.

Jessica Mefford, 13, a student at Grigsby Junior High School, and Tiffany Mainer, 10, a student at Frohardt Elementary school, each earned honorable mention in the photography category at the state level.

Kellie Evans, 11, a student at Parkview Elementary School, received honorable mention at the state level in the music category.

Mefford's prize photograph was entitled "A New Beginning."

Mainer was honored for two entries: "For No Disaster to Take a Child's Home" and "For All the Rivers and Lakes to Never Overflow and Cause Disasters."

Evans received state honorable mention for her song, "It Would Be Peace."

More than 200 students participated in the District 29 competition. Six district winners in each category were forwarded to the state level for judging.

Local District 29 winners, listed by category, included:

Literature — winners Jenna Caschetta, John Anthony White and Tim Kosuge of Parkview School; and Lindsay Foster and Ali Krinski of Frohardt.

Honorable mention went to Katie Hubbard, Laura Owca, Sarah Smith, Brittany Ashford and Justin Jones of Parkview; Denessa McCrea of Prather; Brant Pasky of Wilson; and Catherine Robbins, Shannon Roth and Jenna Wright, all Grigsby students.

Visual Arts — winners Ray Geroff of Frohardt and Larry Monroe of Parkview. Honorable mention, Ray Geroff and Steve Geroff of Frohardt; Brandon Ragan, Lesa Byrd and Marissa Cox of Parkview; and Tiffany Rath of Wilson.

Photography — winners Mainer (2); Mefford (2); Perry Gitch of Parkview; and Shelly Pulaski of Wilson. Honorable mention, Jennifer Mull of Maryville; Zach Weston of Parkview; and Matthew Milton and Travis Revelle, both of Grigsby.

Music — winners, Evans, and Amy Wilson, a student at Wilson Elementary School.

Polish Hall Dancers selling cookbooks

Kathy Dohnal covers the Madison-Venice scene for the Press-Record/Journal. Articles can be sent to 2108 Lynch or she can be contacted at 797-2077.

Kathy Dohnal

The following is a recipe submitted by Sylvia Opich for the weekly swap:

Nutroll

1 cup cottage cheese (small curd)
1 cup butter (2 sticks)
2 cups flour
Beat cottage cheese and butter until it looks like whipped cream. Work flour into whipped cream mixture. Separate dough into two parts, wrap in wax paper and refrigerate overnight.

Filling

1 lb. ground walnuts or pecans (2 cups)
1 cup sugar
Carnation Milk (enough to make filling like a paste to spread)
1 tsp. vanilla
Roll dough out and spread filling on top, then roll dough into a jelly roll. Bake at 400 degrees for 15 minutes. Melt half a stick of butter and spread on top of rolls. Bake one hour at 350 or 375 degrees.

Glaze

1 egg yolk
water
Beat one egg yolk with small amount of water and glaze the top of the rolls. Bake until brown.

Ann Krystopa was guest of honor at a bridal shower hosted by the Bellmore Glik gang and retirees at the home of Rich and Gerry Mendez.

A buffet lunch and decorated cake were served to Kathy Dohnal, Linda Dohnal, Toni Mendez, Linda Kolling, Violet Holder, Leslie Dortch, Mary Ann Pare, Donna Corrie and the honoree's family, Rose Krystopa, Debbie Krystopa, Lynn Whitney, Joan Hartwick, Angela Kromeyer and Jennifer Hartwick.

Ann will become the bride of Eric Smith at 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 6, at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church in Granite City.

The Polish Hall Dancers are selling the PRCA 120th anniversary cookbooks for $7. Several of the members have recipes in the book.

The cookbooks will be available at the annual outdoor barbecue on Aug. 20 at the Polish Hall in Madison or by calling 797-2077. Regina Fortys is the director of the dancers.

For kids — In Granite City First Assembly of God, 24th Street and Grand Avenue, will be hosting the Kings Kids at 6:30 p.m. Sunday, July 24. Kings Kids is a dynamic children's ministry that presents a fast-paced, exciting service for children of all ages using songs, puppets, animated characters and "Miss Sandy."

Baptist senior citizens' group plans trip to Branson

Maxine Green covers the Granite City and Branson area for the Press-Record/Journal. She can be contacted at 931-6266.

The Madison County Baptist Association Senior Citizens group, "Saint's Alive," met July 11 at the Calvary Baptist church on Washington Avenue. President Lewis opened the meeting with prayer and then extended a welcome to everyone.

Lewis also thanked members of Calvary Baptist Church for inviting the congregation, and Ron and Mary Alice Weiss and Glen and Phyllis Knight for the decorations and serving the pot luck dinner.

"Happy Birthday" and "Happy Anniversary" were sung to those having birthdays and anniversaries.

Kathy Sargent led in singing "We Uter Our Cry" with Louise Ackocks accompanying on the piano. Ron Weiss read an article from the February issue of the Illinois Baptist paper about the song "Footstep of Jesus," and he then discussed the meaning of the song.

Another song, "Battle Hymn of the Ages," was sung.

The secretary's report was given. Earl Spalding gave a reading on "Memory Lane" and "Soups." Lewis read some jokes about senior adults.

Dr. Wilkinson, coordinator, announced plans for a trip to Branson, Mo., and Silver Dollar City Sept. 14-16. Reservations should be made by Aug. 1. Call 977-0040 or 931-6222 for more information.

"Statue of Liberty" was sung by Sargent. Rev. Bob Carter, missions director, delivered a message on "A New Heaven and New Earth," taken from The Book of Revelations. He also asked the blessing on the food that was served.

Those attending were Myra Grote, Jim and Vera Ridgeway, Gertrude Sullivan, Wilma Ferriss, Del Wilkinson, Krene Wilkinson, Pauline Harp, Virgil and Olive Stogard, Norma Rains, Roy and Hattie Jones, Vicki Harper, Sargent, Elwyn Wilkinson, Viola Baker, Eva Varrow, Oleo White, Francis Feldman, Ackocks, Lewis, Ron and Mary Weiss, Virginia Arakaki, Ruth Ruppert, Thelma Phelps, Glen and Phyllis Knight, Mary Hoover, Earl and Gertrude Spalding, Nora Birtley, Dorothy Watkins, Lucy Sterart, Vera Kirkpatrick and Rev. Bob Carter.

The next meeting will be held Oct. 3 in the Second Baptist Church, 2100 Illinois Ave.

The annual Vickers-McKenzie family reunion was held on July 2 in Kaskaskia Park. The oldest family member attending was Carl Mair, who is 103, of East Alton.

Others from this area who attended were Jerry and Marsha Kirkpatrick and children, John, Robert, Timothy, Stephen and Sarah; Kay Anderson and granddaughters, Ashley and Whitney; Helen Mair; and Tina Lyons.

The mother-daughter over-nights, sponsored by the Women's Missionary Union of Illinois Baptist State Association, was held Friday, July 15, and Saturday, July 16, at Lake Sallateasca, near Puckneyville.

Registration took place at 4 p.m., followed by a Planet Hollywood dinner, free boating time, miniature golf, games and nature hikes. The evening activity was a feature presentation beginning at 7 p.m., followed by campfire and lights out.

Saturday at 7 a.m., rise and shine started the day. The flag ceremony followed and then breakfast was enjoyed by all. Worship was held at 9:10 a.m., followed by a canteen and camp store visit. Recreation for the day included boating, swimming, miniature golf, group games and nature hikes.

Lunch was served at the Hard Rock Cafe, followed by a missions fest and the closing ceremonies at 2 p.m.

Approximately 150 members attended from Illinois, including Kay Anderson and her daughter, Tina, who are members of Calvary Baptist Church in Granite City.

Girl Scout Council launching adult recruitment campaign

River Bluffs Girl Scout Council is launching its adult recruitment campaign for the 1994-95 school year.

While the primary focus is the need for adults who will work directly with children as troop leaders or assistant leaders on a regular basis, there are many other opportunities to work in other support areas such as making telephone calls, providing paperwork services, sharing a skill or hobby or helping with transportation.

"While we served over 10,000 girls this past year, there were close to 1,000 girls throughout the council's 5½-county jurisdiction who could not be members due to lack of adult volunteers," said Diane Busch, director of field services for the council.

"The primary source for adult leaders has traditionally been mothers of girls in the troop, but with changes in today's society due to the ever increasing number of single parents and working mothers, we are making a push to actively recruit outside of our traditional source so that every girl who wants to join can be a Girl Scout. That often requires changing the public's perception of who can be a leader."

The first myth to change in the public's mind is that a Girl Scout adult volunteer must be a female. Men may serve as a member of a leadership team. "There are just as many dads who love their daughters as mothers, and this is the perfect way for a father to have fun in a meaningful program with his daughter and her friends," says Busch.

The second myth is that you have to be a parent of a girl to volunteer. "While parents do make great leaders, so do many other people such as single career oriented persons, young married persons without children or retirees. Adults must be 18 years of age and be persons who enjoy working with children and other adults."

If you would like to learn more about being a volunteer, contact the River Bluffs Girl Scout Council at 692-0692.

East Side baseball mostly work of Art

Assuming the weather is typical late July, you can figure the ingredients of a baseball game at Jones Park in East St. Louis will include plenty of sunlight and dust.

That's how things have been since baseball no longer is featured on Diamond No. 1 in the park, where the only action left is on the corner of 38th Street on a diamond that has become the home of the East St. Louis Colts 458.

WHY EMPHASIZE another Sunday doubleheader in the Mon-Clair League, with action starting at 1:30 p.m. today?

In this particular case, the time and place have significance since catcher-manager Art May of East St. Louis will be making his final appearance at Jones, where he has played 25 seasons with the Colts.

You can bet May will start behind the plate in the first game against Belleville despite having reached age 50.

Named to this season's all-star game, where he took a .300 batting average, May told a recent meeting of the league managers that it was time to step aside.

"I've got too many other things to do," said May, who is a teacher/athletic director at East St. Louis Senior High School.

Concern for the East St. Louis entry in the Mon-Clair League for years has been related to May's presence.

"WITHOUT HIM, I always thought the team would fold," said East Alton manager Jim Blackledge.

To an extent, Blackledge is correct, since May noted he had to stay affiliated with the team in some form to retain its sponsorship with Chick Fritz Distributing.

"I'll stay on as business manager," but Andy Walker and Carlos Stanford will run the team," May said.

Walker is a former minor league player in the Chicago Cubs organization and Stanford is a regular starter for the Colts.

Their challenge, however, will not be keeping their play on a high level, but accepting the duties of organization which can be most consuming for a manager.

May handled that well during his tenure in a city where baseball once flourished, but now is down to a limited number of youth teams and just one American Legion and one Mon-Clair team.

Those of us who recall the action throughout the week at Jones Park, and especially some of the games at Diamond No. 1, are most aware that May is one of the few remaining links to a baseball era that has long passed in East St. Louis.

EXTRA INNINGS: When it comes to supporting amateur baseball, how about Pete Schumacher of Trenton?

The recent 50th anniversary celebration of the Clinton County League was hyped by Schumacher, the league's secretary-treasurer for the past 33 years.

Most noteworthy of the Clinton County graduates is Red Schoendienst, the major league Hall of Famer who began his playing career in Germantown.

Although the league now plays single games on Sundays, interest remains high in the nine communities involved. Recent standings showed: Aviston (6-1), Trenton (6-2), Breese (6-2), Bartlesville (5-1), Centralia (4-4), Beckemeyer (4-5), Carlyle (2-5), New Baden (1-5) and Germantown (0-5).

Another league of note is the Metro East Night League — a seven-team men's league, including O.B. Clark and the Pointers of St. Louis.

Recent standings showed O.B. Clark at 6-0 followed by East Alton (7-1), Pointers (7-1), Bethalto (3-5), Edwardsville (2-6), Millstadt (1-7) and Sauget (1-7).

The St. Louis teams traditionally enter the National Baseball Congress tourney in Wichita, Kan.

Tripets home in on playoffs

Tri-City preparing for postseason

By Tony Panozzo
Staff writer

The Tri-City Triplets are back in familiar territory this week, and so are the North Division playoffs.

After a one-year hiatus, the District 22 North Division double elimination playoffs will return to Varsity Field on Monday. The division playoffs were moved to Gordon Moore Park in Alton last year after a four-year stay at Varsity Field from 1989-92.

During that period, Tri-City won two division playoff titles and a District 22 championship. The Triplets are hoping a return to home can help them find similar success.

TRI-CITY CAME home limping last week after finishing the regular season with a rough two week stretch on the road. The Triplets played 13 games in 12 days, all but two away from home, and completed the regular season with a 13-9 record.

The Triplets will begin the playoffs at 8 p.m. Monday against Collinsville. They are coming off Tuesday's hard fought, 4-3 loss to Marissa in nine innings. Their greatest loss, however, came July 14 at Edwardsville, 1 p.m.

(See TRIPLETS, Page 3B)

Tri-City ace Corey Dickerson enters this week's playoffs with a 6-1 record.

Junior Triplets land four players on All-Star team

The Tri-City Junior Triplets hope to advance in this weekend's District 22 Junior Legion playoffs, but four players have already entered their selections.

Jon Reader, Shaun Kuehnle, Mike Kalps and Brian Lloyd will represent Tri-City on the North American Legion All-Star game at Longacre Park in Fairview Heights.

The Junior Triplets, scheduled to play Wood River on Saturday in the first round of the playoffs, finished the regular season 11-7 and second to Alton in the North Division standings. Both teams had four players named to the All-Star team.

Reader, an outfielder/first baseman, is hitting .355 this season. Kuehnle, a pitcher/outfielder, is hitting .302. Kalps, an infielder/outfielder, is hitting .325, and Lloyd, a pitcher/infielder, is hitting .397.

THE TEAM will be managed by Alton's Terry Peek, and the coaches are Tri-City manager Jerry McKeehan and Wood River manager Troy Peek. Patrick McKeehan of Tri-City and Tyler Peek of Alton will serve as the team's bat boys.

Other North Division selections were Brian Lewis, Matt Bowen, David Hartmann and Alex Sherlock of Alton; Damon Peterson, Matt Rodgers, Robert Stratton and Jeff Evans of Wood River; Jeremy Christensen and Josh Coleman of Bethalto; Brian Stark of Edwardsville; Ryan Warnecke of Highland; and Darren Phelan of Roxana.

The South Division team features four players from O'Fallon which won its division with a 15-2 record. The South Division will be led by O'Fallon manager Danny Blazier and two assistants, Kevin Boyer of Collinsville and Dennis Poor of Fairview Heights.

Summer competition, camp serve Willis well

By Rob Raphael
Correspondent

When practice for girls volleyball at Granite City High School begins next month, the Lady Warriors will have a much more capable front-line player ready to go.

Jennifer Willis, returning for her junior year at GCHS, has spent this summer gaining knowledge and experience in games across the United States.

Willis, 15, the daughter of Joe and Debbie Willis of Granite City, took part in a national tournament in Austin, Texas, in June and a major volleyball camp in Lexington, Ky., two weeks ago.

WILLIS HAS BEEN competing this summer for the St. Charles Volleyball Club, after some time in the Granite City Volleyball Club. She said she was asked by St. Charles Club coach Ruth Beardsley if she would consider playing across the river.

"She saw me playing in Granite City, and asked me if I would like to be a part of her team in St. Charles," Willis said. "I thought it would be a good opportunity, so I accepted."

The St. Charles Club has a reputation for winning and traveling across the country to compete, she said, on June 23-26, the team went to Texas to compete in the Third Coast Volleyball Championship. Willis' team, the 16-and-under squad, placed third in the tournament, which included teams from all over the United States.

The team came within an eyelash of playing in the championship game.

"We played a team from Lawrence, Kan., and lost in a close game," Willis said.

Southern women take third at PSG

By Scott Marion
Staff writer

The Southern Region scholastic women's basketball team shook off a disappointing loss last weekend and came back to win a bronze medal at the Prairie State Games.

Southern, which finished 2-1 in pool play after an 88-82 loss to North Shore, beat Blackhawk 77-66 Sunday morning in the third-place game at Robertson Field House in Peoria.

Granite City's John Cavanaugh helped lead the way with 13 points, including 10 in the second half.

"I'm disappointed we didn't take the gold because I honestly thought we had the best team, but things don't always work out that way," said Southern coach Jim Karwoski.

"WITH A LITTLE luck of the draw, we could have been playing for the gold, but everyone told us the game against North Shore was really the championship game. It may have been the best girls basketball game I've ever seen."

"In our other three games (including an 84-64 win over West Central and an 89-72 win over Blue-Gray II), we were up by at least 20 points going into the last five minutes."

As expected, Michelle Hasheider from Okawville was the big gun for Southern. She scored 16 points in the bronze medal game.

"We got a great individual performance from Michelle," said Karwoski, who is the head coach at Althoff High School.

"In the game we lost, she had 41 points. She put on a clinic."

BETTY VOELLINGER (Althoff) had an excellent tournament, as did Angie Linker (Okawville). Jodi Murray (Centralia) was our leading scorer in the bronze medal game (with 19 points) and had three triple-doubles in the first four minutes.

"We got a really good effort from Kim Fingsteraus (Mater Dei). She started the last game and came off the bench in the first two."

Karwoski tried a different approach in building this year's team.

Last year we had all the Class A talent, but we didn't have the AA girls who were used to playing the big kids," Karwoski said. "We picked up Jamie Cavanaugh, plus Jodi Murray and another Centralia player (Angie Linker)." (See SOUTHERN, Page 3B)

Tuesday Afterschool League awards top teams, individuals

Granite Bowl's Tuesday Afterschool League ended its season earlier this year with "Strikers" Mark Thomas, Matt Whitehead and Susan Barnes taking first place.

"High Energy" bowlers Nick Huniak, Phil Huniak, John Dimitroff and Gary Brooks Jr. captured second place.

High average bowlers for the league were Mark Thomas, who posted an average of 154; and Jaimee Meritz, who posted an average of 136. Individual scores of 532 by Matt Whitehead and 430 by Amanda Supp were league highs.

Season high games bowled by Dwayne Slay and Jessica Huniak (K) most improved bowlers. Matt Whitehead with 10 increase and Robin with a 17-pin increase.

Trophies were presented to first and second-place teams as well as the top individuals. Each bowler received a Hammer bowling ball.

Willis

game," she said. "It was too bad, because we could have played the other volleyball club from St. Charles if we had won."

As it turned out, that other St. Charles club won the championship. There were 79 teams entered in the tournament, and Willis' team earned medals for their third-place finish.

Willis also participated in a five-day volleyball camp, held July 10-14 at the University of Kentucky in Lexington.

She said that experience was also helpful.

"We spent the first two or three days in clinics, learning techniques," Willis said. "Then we split up into teams and played each other for a day, and finished up playing an all-star game."

Willis, who says she likes to play middle hitter the best, was a member of the all-star team.

Now she can get ready for the upcoming volleyball season at GCHS. She said practice under head coach Cindy Gagich begins August 15.

"I'm looking forward to it," Willis said. "I feel like I can contribute much more than last year. This summer has been fun, and I have learned a lot."

She said the main things she learned from the summer's activities was teamwork and seasoning.

"I think I have become a much better team player," Willis said. "When I joined the St. Charles team, I didn't know anyone, so I had to learn where I fit in on that team. Once I got to know everybody, it felt like I had been playing with them for years."

She said she also got a taste of the next level of competition.

"I was surprised at all of the good players in (the Texas) tournament," Willis said. "I was glad to see I can play with them."

Willis, who also plays basketball and softball at GCHS, said volleyball is her favorite sport.

She said she hopes to play either volleyball or basketball in college, but she isn't sure where.

"It really doesn't matter, as long as I can keep learning and playing sports," Willis said.

She has plenty of time to think about that — first there is a volleyball season to worry about.

"All I'm thinking about right now is playing volleyball this year," she said. "I am eager to get started."

Southern

"The thing I was looking for this year was kids who could run up and down the floor and pop the three-pointer. We didn't have a lot of big people."

"It was a very talented team and the girls got along well. They loved playing together because they like playing this style of ball. We made a ton of three-pointers, including eight in the bronze medal game."

Southern's high-powered offense averaged 83 points per game.

GCHS grid camp this week

Registration is now being taken for the 1994 Granite City High School summer football camp, scheduled to run Tuesday through Thursday at GCHS.

The camp is for students in grades 7-12 and will be held from 9:30 a.m.-12 p.m. all three days. The cost is $30. Instruction will be provided by Warrior coach Don Harris, assistant Larry Curry and the rest of the GCHS staff. Each camper will receive a T-shirt.

The camp will stress individualized fundamentals and techniques and is designed to assist players in developing skills. Practices will be divided into offensive and defensive sessions. Campers will work at all positions individually and as a team. Campers need to bring football shoes, socks and shorts.

"We left Michelle on the floor most of the game," Karwowski said. "Our plan was to use four real good guards and switch them off, two at a time, every three or four minutes."

"But Terri Henken (Mater Dei) hurt her knee in the first half of the first game, so we had to change our strategy and run people a little more."

Rounding out the roster for Southern were Crystal Logan (Nashville), Tami Beck (Mount Vernon), Callie Walker (Waltonville) and Jennifer Falbe (Sandoval).

Sluggers split, gain forfeit win

The Mr. Twist Sluggers split two games last week but stayed at the top of the Midges I standings after gaining some lost ground with a forfeit victory.

The Sluggers, who lost 5-4 to the Eagles and defeated the Illinois-American Water Company 7-0 in Granite City Park District play, moved to 3-1. The Sluggers suffered a loss July 9 to the Brooklyn Tigers, but the outcome was changed to a forfeit after league officials ruled the Tigers had fielded an ineligible player during the contest.

The 12-10 loss to the Tigers was changed to a 7-0 forfeit win for the Sluggers, who were scheduled to play the Stars on Thursday.

Triplets

River when Jeff Ridenour broke his hand.

Ridenour, Tri-City's top playmaker, has missed the past five games and is out for the season. The Triplets spent the tail end of the regular season adjusting to Ridenour's absence and surviving the road trip.

"Tri-City will return home Monday after a much-needed break. I think it was something we really needed," Tri-City manager Doug Winfield said. "That was a pretty tough stretch."

After losing Ridenour, the Triplets defeated Wood River and Edwardsville and returned home for a doubleheader July 16 against Roxana. But Tri-City dropped both games and lost at Fairview Heights the next day.

After bouncing back with a 12-4 win over East St. Louis last Monday, the Triplets came up short in extra innings against Marissa. Ryan Schultz scored the game-winning run in the ninth when he stole second base and crossed the plate after two throwing errors by Tri-City.

The Triplets are looking forward to returning to Varsity Field, where they have played just twice this month.

"We haven't played much at home," Winfield said. "That'll be an advantage for us. Obviously, we know our field better than anyone."

The Triplets, seeded second in the North Division, will square off against No. 3 Collinsville (12-10). Alton (18-4), which finished with the best record in District 22, won the North Division title and earned the top seed for the playoffs. Alton will play the winner of this week-end's single-elimination playoffs at 5:45 p.m. Monday.

The North Division playoffs and the South Division playoffs, set in O'Fallon, will continue through Thursday. The division winners will meet next weekend in the best-of-three District 22 championship series.

Tri-City has won three straight North Division playoff titles since 1991. But the Triplets' streak of four straight regular-season division titles came to an end this season.

Alton, which defeated Tri-City twice this season, won the division and earned the top seed. The Triplets are hoping to get a fresh start with the playoffs.

"If we play well, we'll have a chance," Winfield said. "You have to play one at a time and you can't look past anybody."

Like the Warrior baseball team earlier this year, Tri-City has been led by its pitching staff ace Corey Dickerson, scheduled to start Monday, stands at 6-1. He tossed a one-hitter against Collinsville earlier this season.

Left hander Mark Winfield is 4-3. His last outing was Monday's victory over East St. Louis.

"We have to count on our pitching to carry us, obviously," Doug Winfield said. "We haven't scored many runs this year."

"We're still throwing the ball well. We're pretty much been that way all year. It's just Ridenour's injury left the Triplets without their top hitter, but Brian Kohler has filled in nicely in right field."

"He's done an excellent job," Winfield said. "He's played well defensively and had some base hits. We don't give up any speed with Brian, that's for sure."

While the Triplets have struggled at several points this season, they are not alone. With the exception of Alton, few teams have been able to avoid slumps.

Belleville, the defending District 22 champion, won the South Division regular-season title with a 16-6 record. But the Hildags could be challenged by several teams in the playoffs, notably O'Fallon (15-7).

"O'Fallon's playing well," District 22 commissioner Ralph Burnett said. "They're deep. They have a lot of pitching and they look like they're going to be pretty hard to beat."

"There's some good parity in the league this year. There are a few teams that are a cut above the rest, but there are a few other teams that can win. I've seen just about every one of them and I'm looking forward to it."

Burnett, who coached Tri-City for seven years, is also looking forward to seeing the return of the North Division playoffs to Granite City. Burnett led the Triplets to the state tournament in 1991 and racked up 125 victories during his tenure.

"I'm glad they're back here," Burnett said. "It should be pretty good."

Park to hold sanctioned tennis tourney

The Granite City Park District will host an invitational tennis tournament sanctioned by the United States Tennis Association on Aug. 12-14 at the Wilson Park courts.

Registration will begin Monday at the Wilson Park office. Play is limited to three events. Singles fees are $10 per event and doubles fees are $5 or $10 per event. Balls will be furnished.

Singles and doubles play for boys and girls age 12 and under, 14 and under, 16 and under, 18 and under begins Aug. 12. Men's and women's singles, doubles, 35 and over singles and 35 and over doubles begins Aug. 13.

Trophies will be awarded to the winner and runner-up in each event. Events must have at least four entrants in order to be played. The deadline for entries is 5 p.m. Aug. 9.

All fees must be submitted with entry forms before the deadline. No entries will be accepted after the deadline.

Park to hold sanctioned tennis tourney for residents

The Granite City Park District will hold a tennis tournament for residents of the Park District on Aug. 1-3. Registration will begin Monday at the Wilson Park office and will continue until the day of the tournament on the tennis courts. The cost to enter is $3 per event.

There will be 12 singles events and 12 doubles events. Singles play is open to boys and girls age 12 and under, 14 and under, 16 and under and 18 and under. The other divisions are men's 35 and over, women's 35 and over, and women's 35 and over.

Doubles play is open to boys and girls age 14 and under, 16 and under and 18 and under. The other divisions are men's 35 and over, women's 35 and over, mixed and parent/child.

The tournament, which begins for youth players at 9 a.m. Aug. 1, will be directed by Raffi Karibian.

HOW CLOSE ARE WE TO A CURE FOR CANCER?

Dr. Gold specializes in the treatment of asthma and allergies.

IN HER CASE, ABOUT 31 MILES.

While advances in medical research have given thousands of Americans with cancer more hope than ever, we still haven't been able to solve the most basic problem of transportation. But you can help. And we hope you will. Through the American Cancer Society's Road to Recovery program, you can help by volunteering to drive a cancer patient to and from a treatment facility. If you have a car, safe driving skills, and can drive as little as one morning or afternoon a month, you can help give someone the most precious of all gifts: the chance for a fuller life. For more information, call your American Cancer Society at 1-800-ACS-2345. Call today. And help us drive cancer from the face of the earth.

Neighborhood restaurant offers food for body and soul

By Neal Learner
Staff writer

Fine art and gourmet pizza coexist in creative harmony at a restaurant in a St. Louis neighborhood.

Fans of the newly renamed Sunflour Pizza and Cafe (formerly called the Wildflower) can feast their eyes on an exhibit by two young local artists, while they satisfy their appetites for choices on the new summer menu.

The Sunflour is located at 5513 Pershing Ave.

The photographs of Robert G. Grimm, 27, and the paintings of Anne Molasky Thur, 32, went up last month at the Sunflour and will stay through the end of September. The show is the first of its kind for the restaurant, which opened a year and a half ago.

The reaction to the exhibit so far has been fantastic, said Sunflour owner Tim Hirsch.

"Everyone really loves it," said the 26-year-old restaurateur. "It really fits in here with our seasonal menu. We try to be creative with the menu."

The large painted canvases by Thur portray colorful scenes of people enjoying themselves in various restaurants and coffee houses around the St. Louis area.

Thur, who recently graduated from Washington University with a master's degree in fine arts, said she is trying to capture more than just the festive atmosphere in different social situations.

"I try to take it a little further," the South St. Louis resident said of her subjects. "I want to explore the psychology of these people."

Many local residents have already seen Thur's work at area theaters or at the St. Louis Zoo. She has painted sets at the Zoo and currently serves as the lead set painter for Stages St. Louis, a theater group based in Kirkwood.

Thur currently is being hanging out in the primate house at the St. Louis Zoo, where she is painting realistic jungle scenes on the walls.

"Every day is something different," she said of her chosen profession. "This space (at Sunflour) is great. It's important for an artist to show in as many places as possible."

Grimm, a resident of the Central West End, makes his living as a commercial photographer. His daily work comes out in annual corporate reports, advertisements and in product catalogs.

The series of black-and-white and color photographs on display at Sunflour come from a trip he took last fall to the four corners of Colorado, Utah, Arizona and New Mexico. The various close-ups and landscapes capture the West's untamed natural beauty, Grimm said the works are a creative outlet and done for fun.

"All we did was live and breathe photography," he said of the week-long trip. "The aspens were in their prime. They were just screaming out color."

He said the trip was a chance to loosen up from his normal work and explore both the technical and creative aspects of photography.

Sunflour will put up works by different artists in September, when the restaurant brings out its autumn menu. Sunflour offers a new menu quarterly to reflect the change in season and the freshest ingredients available. The inspiration to present a rotating show came partly to do with this philosophy and partly out of necessity, Hirsch said.

"We have these huge walls," he said pointing around the room. "We needed something to fill them with. I've wanted to do this since we opened, but I didn't know how much work it would take. I didn't have any time."

Emily Blumenfeld, 27, an administrator with the Bi-State Development Agency in charge of the temporary public art displays throughout the city, came to the rescue. She matched Hirsch up with the two local artists and said it shouldn't be hard for him to find others.

"The artists are always saying, 'We want more wall space, we want more wall space,'" she said. "People are hungry for it."

"All we did was live and breathe photography," he said of
